TAILORED RISK AND INSURANCE SOLUTIONS FOR TRIBES

Tribal country has experienced unprecedented economic growth, leading to a whole new world of opportunity and risk. Today's challenges involve much more than maintaining your Tribe's wealth. It means navigating the economic downturn while managing a wave of new gaming regulations and rising expenses.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO DO IT ALONE

We have built a specialized team of professionals with vast experience assisting Native American clients, in addition to two of our Global Practice Leaders being Citizens of the Cherokee Nation. Our team has a clear understanding of Sovereign Immunity and how it must be considered in all business dealings. We understand that within most tribes, the tribal council sets the course of the tribe and its enterprises while maintaining ultimate authority over business decisions.
